

Case Study – career path

Chris Rhodes – Health Partners

An early interest.....

Grandmother – byssinosis (brown lung disease)

Grandfather – pneumoconiosis (black lung disease)

Student Nurse – 1986 – Rochdale
Qualified in Kent 2000 – 4 months large defence engineering company – very treatments oriented
Staffing on Medical/Admissions 4 years
1994 – Practice Nurse - Essex

1995/96 – Falkland Islands – Sister – general wards/ A&E/ ICU

1996 – London – First OH role – British Gas Trading

1997 – Studied BSc in Occupational Health and Safety Management at Middlesex University – facilitated SCPHN and MIOSH

Worked for Capita Health Solutions – great experience across wide range of sectors – then managing the BBC contract

2008 – MSc International Travel and Health – Sheffield

2017 – present – Health Partners as Chief Nursing Officer

2019 – Bath Uni – Doctorate – on hold

